

KEVIN A. ADAMSON, M.B.A., J.D.
PRESIDENT AND AGENT

Kevin Adamson is the President of KASE Management and a certified sports agent. Kevin has always had an interest in sports and followed them closely. With his wide knowledge of the sports industry and a law degree, Kevin was consulted numerous times by friends and family members who were in need of draft or negotiation advising. It only seemed right for Kevin to establish a sports management firm and combine his two passions.

Kevin is an Atlanta native and earned his law degree from Cumberland School of Law at Samford University. He obtained a Bachelors of Business Administration from LaGrange College and a Masters of Business Administration from Lynchburg College. He is a member of the Georgia Bar Association, the American Bar Association, and the Georgia Trial Lawyers' Association.

Kevin is a registered mediator and arbitrator. He has extensive experience with contract negotiation. He is committed to best serving his clients by creating relationships between the players and sports organizations through contract and endorsement negotiation. He works with clients to develop them into positive role models and prominent community figures. This is accomplished through personal attention, accessibility, and contacts in the field. Kevin believes in growing potential talent from a very early age and cultivating long-term relationships with clients, parents and coaches.

Kevin and his wife Starla live in the Atlanta area.
